
WOODSTOCK FARMERS MARKET

CODE OF CONDUCT

MISSION

Our mission is to provide access for all to quality fresh produce, address food insecurity, represent community diversity and strengthen neighborhood relationships through our support of local farmers and by providing a central gathering place. The market promotes healthy eating, food education, and close ties between farms and our urban community.

CODE OF CONDUCT

The Woodstock Farmers Market holds all Staff, Volunteers, Vendors, Board members and Shoppers to the following principles:

- Zero tolerance for oppressive or discriminatory speech or behaviors
- Value the need for transparent feedback. Vendors should come to the market manager with input and concerns
- Practice patience and understanding
- Demonstrate sensitivity to people of all ages, ethnicities and diversities
- Treat customers, staff, volunteers, and other vendors with courtesy, respect and honesty
- Assist other vendors whenever possible
- Do not treat any person in a manner that is rough, menacing, vulgar, profane or abusive
- Respect your surroundings and the land that the market is on. Do not leave trash or belongings on site
- All products for sale are made or grown by the vendor, signage is accurate, and pricing is clearly posted
- Practice safe behaviors at all times, including while driving on/off site, loading and unloading
